Applications for Professor of Practice at IIM Mumbai

Indian Institute of Management Mumbai, India, is looking for a Professor of Practice to conduct cutting-edge research, training, executive education, etc. The selected candidate would receive a monthly consolidated salary of INR 2,00,000. The Professor of Practice will be appointed initially for one year; however, the position will be renewed annually based on performance for three years. Please find the Scope, Deliverables, and Eligibility as described below:

Scope of Work

- Develop and conduct industry-relevant training programs/workshops to strengthen the industry-institute partnership and upgrade executives from Electronics Manufacturing Services (EMS)
- Prepare applied research program roadmap to solve the EMS industry problems.
- Provide fresh perspective to students/faculty/executives and develop new ideas through guest lectures, faculty interactions, and domain-specific leadership talks to support the projects and research program in areas like discrete simulation, optimization, data science, artificial intelligence (AI), and robotic process automation (RPA) applications, etc. in the EMS.
- Develop thought leadership through webinars, seminars, or workshops on a regular basis.
- Engage with faculty members at IIM Mumbai to share new ideas, create new EMS programs and research projects in seed/mission mode.
- Undertake industry projects and support the implementation of project outcomes in industrial operations.
- Launch courses relevant to new-age digital supply chain practices, use of Generative AI/LLMs/AI-ML techniques, sustainable and resilient supply chain, etc, in the EMS industry.

Deliverables:

The Professor of Practice will submit a quarterly report and schedule quarterly meetings with the India-based industry partner team for progress reviews and updates on the abovementioned scope.

Eligibility

An eminent industry professional or an academician with excellent professional accomplishments from the EMS industry who can impart visionary leadership to achieve the abovementioned scope. The person should not have any association that may have a conflict of interest with the industry.

 Note: - The selected Professor of Practice will be bound by the NDA signed by IIM Mumbai with Intel Technology for ensuring the confidentiality of information and data.*
